BRICK RED

Cabernet Sauvignon 2018
Langhorne Creek , South Australia

Wine

This Cabernet has soft blackberry and mulberry overtones shows characteristic from the Langhorne Creek region.

This wine exhibits soft round tannins and a wonderful fruit sweetness.

Delicate integration with fine French oak, finishes this wine off to a stage where it may be enjoyed now and will continue to delight for years to come.

Viticulture

The grapes were harvested in March for optimal fruit ripeness.

Winemaking

This wine was made in an open top fermenter with a reasonably warm ferment over 8 days, before being pressed off skins.

After malo-lactic fermentation was completed a range of French Oak barrels were used for maturation for 9 months.

What do the dimensions of a brick have to do with winemaking?

Answer: Belvidere Brick Company was founded in 1858 by Philip & Lydia Cross.

Great, great grandparents of Angas Plains Wines owner Phillip Cross.

This business started a tradition that signifies the Cross family's long and continuous history of working the land in and around the Langhorne Creek region.
